SCP Announces New Leadership in Consulting Services Division

Schumacher Clinical Partners has announced the appointment of Linus Diedling to the role of Executive Vice President of the Consulting and Physician Advisory Services Division.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA

Schumacher Clinical Partners has announced the appointment of Linus Diedling to the role of Executive Vice President of the Consulting and Physician Advisory Services Division.

Diedling, a Partner with the Consulting Services division (formerly known as Subsidiary Healthcare) since 2011, steps into this new role with more than 35 years of leadership experience in the healthcare industry. "We are privileged to have Linus' expertise in healthcare operations management, performance improvement, and technology services at the helm of Consulting Services," stated SCP CEO, Rich D'Amaro.

As EVP, Diedling will be responsible for developing and implementing strategic business plans for the consulting business unit, as well as managing the day-to-day operations of Consulting and Optum Physician Advisory Services, a new strategic client relationship that developed this summer. His professional resume includes expertise in strategic planning and performance improvement services. A graduate of Xavier University in Cincinnati, OH, Diedling has led consulting engagements across the continuum of care in healthcare organizations throughout North America and Europe.

"I am delighted to have the opportunity to continue to build an outstanding professional services organization with the many physicians and consulting colleagues here at SCP as we tackle the industry's toughest problems with our clients," stated Diedling.
